

Git is a version-control system that is used by ↳ Github is a hub & interface featuring a code - PRIVATE or

- PUBLIC

REPOSITORY

common features include content such as

- Readme file
- editable file

organizational features include

- branching
- pull requests
- issues / conflict

- expect to integrate into main files later
- propose / discuss edits for users to resolve lines of code

REMOTE version

↳ merges versions

Push commits to remote

Sends files to

Git hub client can, edit & commit changes locally then push to web

LOCAL_1

LOCAL_2